VANCOUVER CITY BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW NO. 79.

A By-Law to license, govern, regulate and direct the several trades, occupations, professions or businesses hereinafter mentioned, and to repeal By-Laws Nos. 8, 47, 51, and 69 of the City of Vancouver.

THE Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Vancouver, in session assembled, enact as follows:—

1. From and after the passing of this By-Law, every person using or following the several trades, occupations, professions or businesses set forth in Schedule A hereunto annexed, and particularly described herein, shall take out a periodical license for such period as is in said Schedule A set forth, paying therefor such periodical sum as is therein specified, which said sum shall in all cases be paid in advance, together with the fee for inspection and license, as specified in this By-Law.

2. No person or persons shall carry on, use, practise or exercise any trade, occupation, profession or business in the said Schedule A described or named, without first having taken out and had granted to him or her the necessary license in that behalf, under a penalty not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars, together with costs, for every such offence, and the amount of the license which should have been paid, which said amount, with penalty and costs, shall, for the purposes of recovery under this By-Law, be held to be one penalty, and shall be recoverable by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, and in default of sufficient distress being found, imprisonment, with or without hard labour (in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate), for any period not to exceed two months.

3. From and after the passing of this By-Law, no person shall set up, use, or drive, within the City of Vancouver, any cab, carriage, or omnibus, or other vehicle for the conveyance of passengers for hire from one place to another within the city, or keep any livery stable or stables where horses and vehicles, or either, are kept for hire, or a sale, feed, or exchange stable, where horses are kept for sale or exchange, or are boarded by the feed, day, or longer period; or set up, use, or drive any truck, dray, cart, waggon, or other vehicle used in the transportation of goods, wares, or merchandise, or other article or thing, from place to place within the city, for hire, or keep teams, for work of any kind, for hire in the said city, without first having obtained a license so to do.

4. Every description of vehicle, except omnibuses, street railway or tramway cars, used in the conveyance of passengers for hire from one place to another within the city, and whether drawn by one or more horses or other animals, shall be deemed a "cab" within the meaning of this By-Law.

5. Every description of vehicle used in the transportation of goods, wares, and merchandise, or other article or thing, from place to place, for hire within the city, whether drawn by one or more horses or other animals, shall be deemed a "dray" within the meaning of this By-Law. Teams of horses, single horses, or other animals engaged in hauling or other work, for hire within the city, shall be considered as "drays" for the purposes of this By-Law.

6. Any licensed hotel or saloon-keeper within the city may, without payment of a license fee, obtain a license to run an omnibus or omnibuses to and from his house, to and from any railway station, wharf, or steamboat landing; but such hotel-keeper shall not be entitled to charge any fee for the carriage of passengers or their baggage in such omnibus, and such omnibus shall have the words "Free omnibus" painted or printed conspicuously thereon, or therein; but such hotel-keepers, or any other persons, may obtain a license for an omnibus or omnibuses for the conveyance for hire of passengers from place to place within the city, on payment of the license fee therefor, and subject to the provisions of this By-Law.

7. No person under the age of twenty-one years shall be granted a license under this By-Law.

8. Every owner of more than one cab, dray, or omnibus shall take out a separate license for each cab, dray, or omnibus, and each such vehicle shall have in a conspicuous place thereon, and subject to the approval of the License Inspector, a number, which number shall correspond with the number in the record or register kept by the License Inspector.

9. The person in whose name a license is taken out under the provisions of this By-Law shall be considered as the owner or proprietor of the vehicle or place licensed, and shall be liable to the penalties in this By-Law contained for any breach of the provisions thereof, whether committed by said owner or proprietor or by any employe of said owner or proprietor; and should such owner or proprietor sell out or transfer his interest in any cab, dray, or omnibus licensed to any other person, said owner or proprietor shall continue to be responsible and liable for any breach of this By-Law as aforesaid, until he shall have had such license transferred to the person to whom he has sold or transferred his interest as aforesaid.

10. Any person purchasing the interest of any other person in any cab, dray, or omnibus, livery, sale, feed, or exchange stable, who shall continue the business without having obtained a transfer of such license, shall be guilty of a breach of this By-Law, and shall, on conviction, be subject to the penalties therein provided.

11. Every cab and omnibus licensed under this By-Law must be kept continually clean, the interior thereof dry, and the harness or equipments used therewith always in good repair and well kept, and every livery stable shall be kept clean, and the vehicles, harness, and stable equipments in connection therewith clean and sound, and the horses therein proper and sufficient to do their work; and all persons, places, vehicles, and horses licensed under this By-Law shall be subject to the inspection of the License Inspector at all reasonable times.

12. No owner or driver of any open cab shall drive, or suffer, or permit to be driven, about the streets of said city during the day-time, in any such open cab, any notoriously bad characters, or women of ill-fame, unless for the purpose of taking such person to or from the railway station, or wharf, or steamboat landing.

13. Every driver of a cab shall, when required by any police officer, give official information with reference to the address of the house or place to which he may have driven any passengers, and any other information connected therewith which may have come to his knowledge, and a refusal of such information will be deemed a breach of this By-Law.

14. Every driver of any cab or dray shall, when called upon so to do, assist any police officer in the conveyance in his cab or dray of any person or persons to the common gaol, or any police station in the city, or in the conveyance to the hospital or elsewhere, if required, any person who may have met with an accident, or is ill or wounded, provided such illness is not of an infectious nature; and said driver shall be entitled to his usual fare therefor by such person so carried, or by the city.

15. Every livery stable keeper shall keep, or cause to be kept, upon his premises, a book or books of record, in which shall be entered the name of the person or persons to whom, and the length of time for which, every horse, or horse or horses and vehicle, is let for hire, the hour of the day or night when each such horse, or horse or horses and vehicle, leaves the stable, when the same is returned; and where the person or persons is or are unknown to such keeper, a description of such person or persons shall be entered in such book or books, which shall be open to the inspection of the License Inspector, or any detective or police officer at all times; and no such livery stable keeper shall knowingly let or hire any horse, or horse or horses and vehicle, to any notoriously bad character or woman of ill-fame.

16. Every owner or driver of a cab, omnibus, dray, or livery vehicle, who is inebriated while engaged with a fare, or who is insolent or abusive, or who attempts to overcharge, or refuses to produce his tariff, number, name, or address, when requested by such fare, or who refuses to aid a policeman, detective, or other police officer in the removal of a prisoner or prisoners to or from any lock-up in the city, or who commits any gross violation of any of the provisions of this By-Law, in addition to the penalties set forth therein, shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to the suspension of his license, and may, in the discretion of the Board of Police Commissioners (subject to an appeal to the Council), be forbidden from driving such vehicle, dray, cab, or omnibus, for such period as may be determined on by said Commissioners.

17. The License Inspector shall furnish, at the cost of the city, to each person taking out a license under this By-Law, two cards containing the tariff appropriate to such license, and a synopsis of this By-Law to be approved of by the Board of Police Commissioners, and to the owner of a cab or cabs, dray or drays, omnibus or omnibuses, one or more plates with the number or numbers of the license or licenses painted or stamped thereon; and such number of plates shall be the property of the city, and on the expiry of the license shall be returned to the License Inspector; and any person failing to return said plates at the expiration of his license or licenses, and continuing the business or calling for two weeks after the expiry of such license or licenses, or after their suspension or cancellation, or who shall, when requested to show his number, exhibit a false one, shall be deemed guilty of an infraction of this By-Law; and no person receiving any such number from said License Inspector shall remove the same from his vehicle, or lend, or exchange, or otherwise illegally use or dispose of the same; and in case of its loss he shall at once procure a new one from the License Inspector, for which he shall pay the sum of seventy-five cents.

18. Every driver of a cab or dray licensed under this By-Law shall serve the first person requiring his cab or dray, and if he plead that he has accepted a previous order, or made a previous engagement, and therefore cannot accept the present order, he shall, on demand, give the name of the person to whom he is engaged, and the time of his engagement; but no driver shall be compelled to take any order if the person calling him owes him a previous fare. No driver shall give a false excuse for not accepting a call, and if convicted of such shall be liable to suspension and fine.

19. Every person licensed under this By-Law shall punctually keep his appointments, whether by day or night, and should he neglect to fulfil any engagement he shall be liable for a breach of this By-Law. Any person ordering a cab, livery vehicle, dray or omnibus, and afterwards not using the same, shall pay to the driver thereof the fare he would have been entitled to pay had he used the said cab, dray, omnibus or livery vehicle.

20. Feed, sale and exchange stables shall be kept perfectly clean and well ventilated, and a liberal supply of the best food and water for animals shall be kept therein and fed to the animals which are entrusted to the care of the keepers thereof, and every such keeper shall provide careful and attentive hostlers, and the animals kept or boarded in such stables shall be properly fed, watered, groomed and cared for at all proper times, for which services the tariff hereinafter mentioned shall be charged and collected.

21. No person employing a cab, omnibus, livery vehicle, or horse or horses, or dray, shall refuse to pay, as soon as his order is completed, the fare established by this By-Law.

22. No person, without the consent of the person employing any licensed cab, shall sit, or be allowed to sit, on the box or any other part of such cab while the cab is employed.

23. No person shall sell or put up for sale by public auction goods, wares, merchandise or effects, or carry on the business or calling of an auctioneer within the city without having obtained a license so to do; and every such license shall contain the name of one person only, and shall not be used by a partner, servant or agent of such person so licensed.

24. No hawker or petty chapman, or other person who carries on a petty trade, or who goes from place to place or other men's houses on foot, or with any animal bearing or drawing goods, wares, or merchandise for sale, or in or with any vessel, boat or other craft, or otherwise carrying goods, wares, or merchandise for sale, shall exercise such calling within the city without a license therefor.

25. No transient trader or other person who occupies premises within the city for a temporary period, and whose name has not been duly entered on the assessment roll of the city in respect of income for the then current year, and who may offer goods or merchandise of any description for sale by auction, conducted by himself or by a licensed auctioneer or otherwise, shall carry on his trade or business, or offer goods or merchandise for sale in manner aforesaid, without having obtained a license so to do; provided, always, that this section shall not affect, apply to, or restrict the sale of the stock of an insolvent or bankrupt estate which is being sold or disposed of within the city where the bankrupt or insolvent carried on business therewith at the time of the issue of a writ of attachment or the execution of an assignment.

26. Every license to such transient trader or other person mentioned in the next preceding section shall continue in force for the number of days for which the license fee is paid, and no longer, and the period for which such license is to be in force is to be stated therein.

27. No person shall keep within the city a restaurant, chop-house, cafe, or house where oysters, fruit or other edibles, or ice-cream is kept to be sold and eaten therein by transient guests, or where lemonade, soda water or other cooling drinks are to be obtained and drunk on the premises, without having a license so to do; provided, always, that this section shall not apply to keepers of licensed hotels.

28. No person shall, for hire or gain, directly or indirectly, keep or have in his possession, or on his premises within the city, any pool, billiard, bagatelle, pigeon-hole or Mississippi table, or tables of like character, or keep or have any such table in any place licensed as a saloon, hotel, victualling house, ordinary, or place of public entertainment or resort, within the city, whether such tables are used or not, without having a license so to do.

29. No person shall keep any exhibition for hire or profit, or keep a bowling alley, shooting gallery, or skating rink within the city, for hire or profit, directly or indirectly, without having obtained a license so to do.

30. No person shall give, or assist in giving, any exhibition of natural or artificial curiosities, wax-work, menagerie, circus, riding, or other like shows, for hire within the city, without having first obtained a license so to do; nor shall any person have or keep a hall or theatre in which any such shows are to be exhibited, nor for the purpose of exhibiting any dramatic, theatrical or musical performance, panoramas, tableaux, or any other exhibition or place of amusement of any nature or kind whatsoever, without a license therefor.

31. No person shall keep an intelligence office within the city, for the purpose of registering the names and residences of, and giving information to, or procuring servants for employers in want of domestics, and for registering the names of and giving information to or procuring employment for, domestic servants or other labourers desiring employment, without having a license so to do; and every person so licensed shall keep a book in which shall be entered at the time of application the names and residences of all applicants for work or employment, or for servants, domestics, and labourers, which book shall be at all times open to the Inspector of Licenses, or any member of the police force, by direction of the Mayor, Police Magistrate, or Chief of Police.

32. Any person or persons, firm or corporate body whatsoever, who shall manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, or in any manner whatsoever traffic in or with opium in any form (except a duly qualified chemist or druggist, and then only on a physician's prescription), whether crude or manufactured, or either, within the corporate limits of the City of Vancouver, shall be subject to and shall first pay a license fee or duty of five hundred dollars per annum, to be payable half-yearly in advance on the first day of July and the first day of January of each year; one-half of said fee to be paid on the day and date above written; and any person or persons, firm or corporate body whatsoever found manufacturing, selling, bartering, exchanging, or in any manner whatsoever trafficking in or with opium in any form (except a duly qualified chemist or druggist, and then only on a physician's prescription), whether crude or manufactured, or either, shall be and are subject to all or any penalty imposed under this by-law.

33. That the said Commissioners shall by resolution establish and number the stands for licensed cabs and drays in the various streets, lanes, or highways in the city, and change, increase, or diminish the same as occasion require, and may limit the number of cabs or drays to occupy each stand.

34. That the owner of every licensed cab or cabs, or omnibus or omnibuses, shall provide two lamps, one on each side of each cab or omnibus, with the number of his cab or omnibus painted in black on the side and front glasses in one and one-half inch figures, and said lamps shall be kept lighted during the hours of darkness, and the drivers of all licensed vehicles shall at all times keep on their persons, and have affixed in a conspicuous place in the interior of said licensed vehicle, a card (to be furnished them as herein set forth) with the tariff set by this by-law printed thereon, and such card shall upon demand of any passenger or person employing any such licensed vehicle be produced and exhibited by such driver as aforesaid to any passenger or other person employing them, and any other cards furnished by the city, save those above specified, to be charged for at the rate of ten cents each.

35. No person or persons shall have or keep within the city limits any place where goods, wares, or merchandise are sold by wholesale or retail, or by wholesale and retail, without first having obtained a license so to do and paid the fee therefor as defined in Schedule A of this by-law.

36. A wholesale and retail trader shall be deemed to be one who sells goods, wares, and merchandise in unbroken packages in quantities consisting of more than one unbroken package to each customer, as well as doing an ordinary retail business in less quantities.

37. A retail trader shall be deemed to be one who sells goods, wares, and merchandise in quantities less than that contained in one unbroken package, and who does not supply others in the business with goods, wares, and merchandise to be again sold at retail.

38. A wholesale trader is one who sells goods, wares, and merchandise in unbroken packages in quantities of not less than one unbroken package to each customer.

39. No person or persons, firm or corporation, shall carry on the business or calling of a commission merchant or agent without first having obtained a license so to do, and having paid the fee set forth in Schedule A of this by-law. This section covers all transactions in which commissions are charged within the limits of the City of Vancouver.

40. Commercial travellers, as included in Schedule A hereunto annexed, are any and every of those persons who shall, being agents for persons not resident within this city, sell, or offer for sale, or carry and expose samples or patterns, or quote prices, for the purpose of selling any goods to be afterwards delivered within the city to any person, or who solicit orders for goods to be afterwards delivered from any point outside the limits of the city: Provided such goods so to be delivered are not the growth, manufacture, or product of the Province.

41. No person shall act as bill poster or advertising agent, or post up any bill in this city, without having first applied for and obtained a license so to do, and paid the fee for same as set out in Schedule A hereunto annexed, and no bill poster shall post any placard upon any private wall, door, gate, or fence without the consent of the owner in writing having been first obtained, nor shall any bill poster post any bill or placard upon any curbstone, sidewalk, flagging, telephone, telegraph, or electric light pole, fire plug, hydrant, fence or railing of any public ground, or upon any structure or thing within any of the parks or public squares, or upon any of the gates or enclosures thereof, without the consent of the Council of the city, and in all cases they will be held responsible for the clearing away of all paper and other debris in the immediate vicinity of their bill boards.

42. No person or persons within the limits of this city shall keep any place or premises where meat is sold at retail in quantities less than the quarter carcase, or at wholesale and retail, without first having obtained a license so to do, and having first paid the license fee set forth in Schedule A hereunto annexed as applied to wholesale and retail butchers; and the Board of Police Commissioners of the city shall direct and regulate the location of such licensed wholesale and retail butchers as in their judgment they may deem suitable.

43. Every person who keeps a store in the city for the purchase and sale of second-hand goods, wares, and merchandise shall first obtain a license so to do, and pay the license fee prescribed for such purpose in the Schedule annexed marked A.

44. Every person who shall keep a store in the city for the purchase and sale of bits of brass, lead, copper, cordage or other like articles, shall be held to be a junk dealer, and shall first obtain a license so to do, and pay the fee for same as set forth in the Schedule annexed marked A.

45. Every person licensed as in the last two preceding sections shall keep a sign on the outside and in front of their premises giving the name of the licensee and his business in conspicuous letters; they shall provide and keep in the English language at each place so licensed a register, in which shall be written in ink in plain characters the names and residence of buyer and seller, and description of articles sold and prices paid on every transaction taking place, and this register shall at all reasonable hours be open to the inspection of the License Inspector or Chief of Police, or any one bearing written authority from either of them; and every such person so licensed as in the two last preceding sections shall at all times give all possible assistance to the police in the recovery of stolen property or the detection of criminals.

46. No person or persons shall keep within the city a pawnbroker's shop without first having obtained the necessary license so to do, and having first paid the fee set forth in Schedule A hereunto annexed; and every person or persons so licensed shall keep his or their books in the English language, and his or their pawn tickets shall be issued in plain characters in the same language, and a correct register of all transactions made by such licensed pawnbroker in the course of his business as such shall be kept, which register shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the License Inspector or Chief of Police of the city, or any person bearing written authority from either of them.

47. Every building licensed as a theatre shall first be certified to by the City Engineer, or such other person as the Council may direct, as being properly constructed and sufficiently supported, that the doors open outwards, and that there are sufficient means of exit to enable the occupants of the building, when full to its utmost seating capacity, to leave the building within a space of three minutes' time; that in his opinion there is nothing, either in the external or internal arrangements, or in the stairways or approaches thereto or therein, that would render such building hazardous or unsafe for its proposed uses, and that proper and sufficient precautions to guard against fire, or the spread thereof, have been taken, and that proper and adequate means of ventilation have been supplied, and that the aisles are kept clear, and no one allowed to sit in them. When this certificate is filed with the License Inspector by the City Engineer, or such other person as the Council may direct, he shall forthwith issue the license upon being satisfied that the license fee as set forth in Schedule A is paid.

48. No person or persons shall keep within the city a boarding or lodging house, or either, without first having obtained a license so to do, and having paid the fee set forth for so doing in Schedule A hereunto annexed; and no such house or houses shall be so licensed unless it or they at all times contain at least 384 cubic feet of space for each and every person occupying the same, and unless each and every room therein has a window made to open at least two feet square.

49. No person or persons, firm or corporation, shall carry on the business or calling of scavengers within the city without first having taken out a license so to do, and having filed with the Inspector a bond in the sum of $500 in two sureties to be approved by the Board of Health of this city, and having paid the fee prescribed in Schedule A hereunto annexed.

50. No person or persons, firm or corporation, shall carry on the business or calling of pipelayers in connection with the public sewers of the city without such person or persons, firm or corporation, are duly qualified pipelayers, and are licensed under this by-law, and have paid the fee prescribed in Schedule A hereunto annexed. Any and all such persons so licensed under this section shall furnish a good and sufficient bond (to be approved of by the Board of Health of this city) in a sum of not less than $500 in two sureties for the workmanlike and faithful performance of their duties as pipelayers.

51. No person or persons, firm or corporation, shall carry on the business or calling of a chimney sweep without first having paid for and obtained the necessary license so to do as prescribed in Schedule A hereunto annexed.

52. Applications for licenses under this by-law shall be addressed to the License Inspector of the City of Vancouver, who shall, upon payment by the applicant of the prescribed fee as set forth in Schedule A hereunto annexed, and upon his being satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person under this by-law to hold such license, issue license under this by-law, and he shall report in full in writing as to all such licenses issued at each and every meeting of the Board of Police

Commissioners.

53. By-laws Nos. 8, 47, 51, and 69 are hereby repealed.
